

The National Redbone Coonhound Association's general meeting was called to order by President John Ingram on April 9, 2021 in Tell City, IN at 12:06pm. Memorials included lifetime director Ken Kust. Darren Gher led the group in prayer.

It was noted that the secretary and treasurer reports were recently approved at the director's meeting. Secretary minutes can be viewed on our website. The treasurer's report ending balance was $42,293.24.

Hunt Chairman report was presented by Tim Bolin. He reported that directors recently acted upon some changes and they will be reviewed at this meeting.

Redbook report was given by Tim Bolin. He asked that everyone please submit an ad and payment to him as soon as possible. Ads and payment will be due December 25, 2021. Due to the publisher being ill, the 2020 book is a bit delayed but hoping it will be sent to the printer by May 2021.

John Ingram gave the column writer report. He shared that Adam would like for someone else to take over writing for the Coonhound Bloodlines. John is going to ask Mike Wicks to send his article to the Coonhound Bloodlines since he already writes for Full Cry and Cooner.

No one from the prize committee was present at the meeting to give a report.

In Old Business, a director's meeting recap was provided that included the newly updated National Redbone Days bid application, the 2022 RQE will be held at US Redbone Days, a new sectional hunt event process was shared as well as the new guidelines to determine a Redbone Days non licensed youth hunt winner and fellowship hunt winner.
